Project Description

Brief Project Description

Mission Arlington is a way of life that works to share the Gospel of Jesus through meeting people's physical needs as well as teaching Bible studies to people all over Arlington.

Additional Details

Mission Arlington serves in over 340 different apartment complexes, mobile home parks, nursing homes, and neighborhoods to have Bible study, after-school programs, ESL classes, and other outreach events to build relationships and share Jesus with families. At the main Mission Arlington office, we help families with food, clothes, housewares, furniture, medical care, and dental care.

Student volunteers become part of the Mission Arlington family the first day they arrive. They will have the opportunity to serve with one or more of the apartment churches. Here they will help lead/teach Bible studies, assist kids with their homework, do food give-aways, host movie nights, and many other activities. When students are not serving in the apartments, they will help at the Mission Arlington office. Here they will help counsel families in need of assistance, work in the food pantry, give out clothes, organize donations, and other things that are part of the day to day work at Mission Arlington.

What type of student is needed?

We ask that students be flexible. Each day's work may look a little bit different from the day before. Students need to be hard workers and willing to serve other people. Each student will have the opportunity to assist and teach Bible study while they are here. Even if they've never done it before, they will get to learn how to teach and work with the kids and youth in the apartments they are serving in.

How will you mentor the student spiritually?

We have a weekly worship time for all the Mission Arlington staff, volunteers, and Bible study leaders. This is a time of singing, teaching, and prayer. We also have daily devotion times at Mission Arlington. Each student will also have another staff and/or Bible study leader that will work with them each day. Students will get to learn and grow in their walk with Jesus while at Mission Arlington.

What training/orientation will you provide for the student?

We believe in on the job training for the students. We will give a tour and give an overview of Mission Arlington when each student arrives. After that, they will join us in the serving here at Mission Arlington.

If possible, suggest a possible weekly schedule for the student(s) or attach separately:

Most days start at 8:00am. We finish up at Mission Arlington at 7:00pm each day; however since COVID, some of our days have gone to 8:00pm. Some afternoons and evenings during the week will be spent in the apartment communities teaching or having outreach events. Each day is different, so flexibility is important.

Are you applying for student volunteers from other agencies/schools/states?

Go Now Missions in Texas and Mississippi send us summer missionaries to serve. When available, Go Now sends a semester missionary to serve.

Travel Information:

To which airport will volunteers need to arrive?

Dallas/Fort Worth or Dallas Love Field

Is a particular time of day they need to arrive or other travel information or suggestions?

No

Living Arrangements:

What are housing/lodging arrangements?

We will provide housing for each student. If multiple students are serving, they will live with each other in one of our Mission

Arlington apartments or houses. If not, a student will live with a staff member. Guys will live with guys and girls will live with girls.

What are meal/food arrangements?

Students are responsible for all of their meals. Most days lunch is provided at Mission Arlington. Students are able to shop from our Mission Arlington food pantry. If they need or want food not available here, they will be responsible for buying it at the store.

What are local transportation arrangements?

Mission Arlington will take care of their transportation since there is no public transportation system in Arlington.
