Project Description

Brief Project Description

Students will serve in day camps, night camps, beach ministry, senior living communities, international café, entertainment complexes sculpting balloons, and face painting with the goal of sharing God's love and the Gospel.

What type of student is needed?

Students who love Jesus, have a heart for missions, team-oriented, and work well with others are encouraged to apply.

How will you mentor the student spiritually?

Students will be provided daily devotional material. Each week the summer staff will walk through a chapter or two of the book "Transformational Discipleship" in addition to taking the former 'Transformational Discipleship Assessment' both before their summer ministry and after their summer ministry so they can evaluate their eight attributes of transformational discipleship.

What training/orientation will you provide for the student?

The first week on the field will be training and orientation of their student's summer ministry. They will be involved in hands-on ministry, included in team-building exercises, and go through policies and procedures that all guest church groups have already been instructed on.

If possible, suggest a possible weekly schedule for the student(s) or attach separately:
