

NW Collegiate Ministries Intern, WSU

Location: Pullman WA, Washington State University

Dates: Immediate – June 1, 2023

Target ministry: Hybrid Campus/Church based ministry with University Students at WSU

Cost: Will be negotiated

Contact: Ken Harmon

Ken.harmon@ncmlife.org

NCM exists to help (1)connect students to God through Jesus Christ, (2)connect students in authentic community, on campus in NCM and off campus in a local church, and (3)connect students to the greatest needs of the world, missions.

You will work closely with Emmanuel Baptist Church as a local base, as you give leadership to the NW Collegiate Ministries on campus and collegiate ministry in the church. You will have the opportunity to develop and lead out in planning and developing student growth activities such as, evangelism training, leadership team development, discipleship training, and missions mobilization.

Requirements:

College Graduate

Currently active in sharing the Gospel

Has had experience as a student in a ministry leadership role

Must be Flexible, Available, Teachable

Local church community involvement is expected

Additional Details:

-Housing will be provided with a host home or some other arrangement

-Single or Married

-There will be a stipend provided, but you will be responsible to raise a portion of your personal support

Development:

You will be expected to grow personally, spiritually, and professionally

Regular supervision will be provided

We will develop ministry and personal goals together